Advanced Technology Enables Personalized Learning Paths

Uniquely customizable, the English Discoveries Online solution can be tailored to suit specific academic objectives as well as students' individual needs. The learning platform offers an advanced management system which provides teachers, coordinators and decision makers with online, intelligent tools for managing their program in an effective and efficient manner. For teachers, it alleviates the burden of monitoring multiple classes and mixed-ability groups, by providing automated scoring and reports, and by classifying students according to their ongoing progress rates, motivation levels and weaknesses. These sophisticated tools enable teachers to create personalized learning paths for students, and allow coordinators to monitor teachers' performance as well as overall program effectiveness.

The English Discoveries Online solution has been implemented by hundreds of universities, colleges and high schools worldwide, as well as 19 ministries of education, and is today enjoyed by millions of students across 30 countries.
